THE CHILD LABOR BILL

Both Branches of Legislature Agree to It.

TONNAGE TAX DISCUSSED

BIII Goes Over Until To-Day-Senate Fixes Campbell Case for Tuesday at Noon-Other Matters

Considered:

The proceedings in the Legislature yesterday were of a desultory nature, no action having been taken in either branch which could be called of sweeping public moment. The Campbell removal resolutions were reported to the Senate, and on motion of Mr. Keezell, they were set as a special order for 12:15 on Tuesday, when a fight is anticipated over the mode of

The House and Senate agreed to the report of the Conference Committee on the child labor bill, which prohibits the working of children under twelve years of age in mills or factories, and regulates the working of children under fourteen by requiring that they shall not be work-ed over ten hours per day. The bill is practically that offered in the Senate by practically that offered in the Senate by Mr. Lyle.

A number of bills were reported from committees in the Senate, and several unimportant ones were passed, and the body adjourned to meet again on Monday at noon.

The House devoted its session majnly to the consideration of the general game law and the tonnage tax bill, but neither was disposed of before adjournment. An interesting bill passed was that to conference on cities and towns full power to regurate the sale of liquor.

The House communicated to the Senate the passage of the joint resolution removing Judge C. J. Campbell. Mr. Keezell, of Rockingham, promptly moved to pass the bill by and make it a special order for next Tuesday at 12:15 P. M. This was agreed to without objection.

siding officer signed several enrolled bills.

3 'The C. pence committee reported that the Hous conferees had yielded the House anisodnent to the child labor bill. The report was adopted and the bill now goes to the Governor. The bill as passed is substantially the Lyle bill. It prohibits the employment of children under twelve years of age and regulates the hours of work for those under fourteen years. The passage of the bill ends a long fight for the prevention or regulation of child labor in mills, factories and manufacturing establishments. Mr. Caboll, of Danville, offered a somewhat similar, best rather more stringent measure, in the House and it was passed by that body. The Senate passed the Lyle bill and after conference the House reluctantly accepted the Senate bill. The bill limits the working of children under fourteen years to ten hours daily.

Mr. McIlwaine moved that when the Senate adjuorn it adjourn nutil Monday at noon. The motion prevailed, though it required an aye and no vote to establish the fact.

Mr. Keezell, from the Committee for Fish and Game, reported the following House blus:

For the protection of fish in the waters

House bias:
For the protection of fish in the waters

to extend the provisions of said act to all the waters within the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth, with amendments.

Mr. McIlwaine, from the Committee for Courts of Justice, reported with amendments a Senate bill to amend and recent act section 3049 of the Code as amended, in relation to wint judges may hold court when the regular judge thereof falls or be unable to hold the same, pay mileage, etc.

Mr. Tyler, of Charles City, asked leave of absence for Mr. Halsey, of Lynchburg. Granted.
The bill of Mr. Anderson in relation to what judges may hold court and prescribing the remuneration therefor was reported to the Senate, but the effort to take the bill up out of its order failed, owing to the small attendance.
Only two bills were passed, all the rest being passed by, owing to the absence of so many members. They are:
House bill extending the terms of town officers so as to conform to their charters, as amended by Mr. Keezell to meet local fonditions in Harrisonburg.
Soldie bill to allow county, city and town treasurers further time to collect certain taxes.
Beveral bills on the calendar were given their second reading and ordered to engrossment. The Senate thereupon adjourned until Monday.

The House.

The House was called to order at 10 e'clock by Speaker Ryan, and prayer was offered by Rev. P. B. Price, of the Presbyterian Church. The House agreed to the conference report on the child labor bill, which prohibits the working in mills and factories of children of twelve years of age and under. of age and under.

The following bills were offered and referred:

By Mr. Moore (by request): To prevent persons from combining to promote strikes,

By Mr. Stearnes: To empower the supervisors of Warwick to maintain a police force in Newport News magisterial district.

Mr. Powers spoke for his amendment, and the bill was advocated by Mr. Mr. Fowers spoke for his amendment, and the bill was advocated by Mr. Mort, of Washington, who urged that the bill be passed without amendment. Mr. Smith, of Clarke, spoke for the protection of robins and for the original bill. There were several other speeches, but further action was prevented by the taking up of the tonnage tax bill, which came up as a special order at 12:30 o'clock. Before this was done, Mr. Graveiy, of Henry, offered a bill to amend the law establishing a dispensary in the town of Martinsville, so as to allow the State one-eighth instead of one-fourth of the net profits, the difference to go to the building of a high-school house.

The clerk read the tonnage tax bill, and this consumed some time. The substitute of Mr. Simmerman to the bill was read, it providing that the tax aball be 30 cents per $100 of the cash value of coal, iron and other ores mirsed. The bill fixes the tax at $1 per $100 of the cash value of coal, iron and other ores mirsed. The bill fixes the tax at $1 per $100 of the cash value of coal, iron and plaster. This was advocated by Mr. Huff, and Mr. Graveley moved to dismiss the bill.

Mr. Gent offered an amendment allowing counties to lay a tax equal to that laid by the State, and Mr. Smith, of Clark, presented one exempting gypsum, lime and plaster. This was advocated by Mr. Huff, and Mr. Graveley moved to dismiss the bill.

Mr. Gravely spoke at some length in support of his motion to dismiss, and he declared that it would work a great hardship upon the iron Industry of his section. At the conclusion of Mr. Garrett's speech, the House adjourned until 10 o'clock to-day.

ulently obtaining a pension, returned a verdict of not guilty, and he was discharged from custody.

The court then took up the case of L. 3. Monroe, formerly a mail carrier, charged with robbing a letter box. The defendant was represented by N. Thomas Mosby as counsel, Monroe lost his position as letter carrier, and some time afterwards was arrested on a warrant charging him with robbing a letter box on the street and taking therefrom a letter containing a check for $15, payable to the order of S. B. Webb. The check was drawn by A. B. Chandler, Jr., and sent to his father at Bowling Green. The words "to the order of" were erused and the check was so changed as to be made payable to S. T. Webb or bearer. Monroe, it is alleged, then presented the check to the Richmond Trust and Safe Deposit Company and it was cashed. The case was investigated and Monroe arrested. The theory as to the theft is that he had a key to the box, for it had not been abstracted.

The case was heard and then argued, after which it was given to the jury. Before the jury agreed Judge Waddili adjourned court until to-day.
